CITY IN BRIEF.

The Daughters of Rebekah are arranging for a picnic during the coming month.

The Indianapolis National Bank began moving into its new quarters yesterday.

Announcing the name of James Smith is under arrest for the alleged theft of a horse.

Mr. Echols ("Red Ray") of the Sentinel Staff has gone East, to be absent several weeks.

The members of the State Board of Health will hold their regular yearly meeting on Tuesday.

The Superintendent of Police has evidence against the lottery and State is ready to prosecute. Why stand they idle?

A colored man named Wiley Stanford died suddenly yesterday morning at his residence on Indiana avenue from heart disease.

Paroled pickpockets, Roberts, Holmes, Williams and Coleman, were released yesterday upon payment of fines and promises to leave the city.

The course of Monday lectures in the Girls' Classical School will close to-morrow with a lecture by Dr. Julia Holmes Smith, of Chicago, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The American Canal Company has accepted the provisions of the law affecting stock companies, and this acceptance has been filed with the State Secretary.

The first prize in declamation in the Girls' Classical School was won by Nellie Johnston, and the second by Eva Walker, at the annual prize declamation Friday afternoon.

The Hospital Board has let the contract for supplies for the year, the bread being obtained at two and one eighth cents per pound and the milk at eleven cents per gallon.

The ladies of the fourth section of the Second Presbyterian Church will give a social at the Church parlors Tuesday evening when Dr. and Mrs. Bartlett, of Washington City, will be present.

Mr. George Stout, one of the bondsmen of J. C. Harrison, has purchased the mansion on North Meridian street formerly occupied by the latter. Mr. Stout and family will occupy it as a residence.

A $10,000 draft sent to the State Treasurer from Tippecanoe County, and supposed to have been lost, was found yesterday in the safe, where it had been placed on account of its arrival after banking hours, and afterwards forgotten.

THE NEW HOSPITALS.

The Bids for Furnishing Steam Heating, Etc., Submitted.

The Board of Commissioners of the new insane hospitals were in session again yesterday, and opened the bids for the heating apparatus and plumbing for the new hospitals. Several bids were submitted, the following being the lowest: For the steam heating at Evansville, $8,880, by E. L. Polk, of Chicago; at Logansport, $14,087.40, by Kelly & Jones, of Pittsburg; and at Richmond, $9,638.49, by the same firm. For furnishing water tube boilers at the three hospitals, each 400 horse power, G. C. Morgan put in the lowest bid, being $8,723.33 for each. For tubular boilers S. I. Polk, of Chicago, put in a bid at $5,629 for each hospital. For furnishing pumps at Logansport Gordon & Maxwell, of Hamilton, O., bid $700, and J. R. Williams, of St. Louis, bid $1,012.29 for the same at the other two institutions. But two bids were received for the plumbing, and both are regarded as high and will not be accepted. With this exception the bids fall several thousands of dollars below the estimates. The board will be in session again on Wednesday.

The Revenue Office.

Yesterday was the last day of Collector McKay's term, and the work of involving the property of the Internal Revenue Office of this city will be begun to-morrow and the property formally turned over to Dr. Hunter, the newly-appointed Collector. It is supposed that the main office will be immediately transferred to Lawrenceburg and a deputy placed in charge at this point. The new Collector has not yet given out the names of those to be appointed to subordinate positions, but it is presumed that the selections are made.

Strawberry Annual Fair.

The annual strawberry show of the Marion County Agricultural and Horticultural Society will be held in the rooms of the State Board of Agriculture on Saturday, the 13th proximo. Premiums are also offered on several kinds of small fruits and flowers. At the same meeting the successful competitor will read an essay on an "Ideal Kitchen," the award to be made known by the committee at the meeting. It is proposed to eat the strawberries after the awards are made, and this should attract a large crowd.

A False Report.

A rumor reached the city yesterday that a little son of Jacob Bowman, 184 Bright street, had been drowned while fishing in Eagle Creek near the I. and St. L. bridge, but the rumor proved to be groundless, as the lad appeared at home safe and sound at 10 o'clock last night, with pole and line, but without any fish. The family was willing to bear the ill luck of his fishing when his appearance relieved their distress on account of the reported drowning.

Ill at Last.

About 11 o'clock last night Patrolmen Rattery and Wilson arrested Daniel Ill on a warrant charging him with assault and battery with intent to kill. Dan is one of the gang of potato peddlers who used John King, the South Illinois street saloon keeper, as roughly some time since. Immediately after the row Ill left the city, going to Louisville, whence he returned the other day. It is said that he assisted Mike Cain in his murderous assault upon Officer Wilson last winter.

Ready to Take Hold.

W. S. Byram, the President of the Overland Company, was instructed to correspond with the Bell Company and solicit ab offer.

Ice cream and strawberries at Schaffner's.

Financial Wisdom. Citizens of this city and vicinity should not pay from $40 to $50 for what they can obtain for $25 to $40. Neither should they patronize establishments who invest in low grade Eastern labor to the detriment of a resident class of working people who make and spend their money in this community. The Globe Tailoring Company, at 22 West Washington street, have all their garments made here by first class workmen, and their prices are much lower than you can obtain the same grade of goods and workmanship for elsewhere.

Strawberries and cream at Schaffner's.

Elegance in Dressing. It is a real comfort and delight to wear a suit of clothes that are a perfect fit and made up with taste and judgment. Elegance, style and artistic finish are the features of Egan & Treat's clothing that catch the eye of our well-dressed young men.

Shell oysters and clams at Schaffner's.

Fine Millinery.

Ladies, you might as well be out of the world as out of fashion, especially as to hats and bonnets. Mrs. Haring, 44 North Illinois street, has all the latest styles of millinery, and all should see her who have not provided themselves with a reasonable hat or bonnet.

Frog hams and boneless bass, Schaffner's.

The Shooting Fest. The meeting of this important society, commencing June 1st, is an important event, and all of the many thousands who attend should provide themselves with a new suit of clothes at L. Mueller's, the artistic tailor, at 40 South Illinois street, whose prices are low and fit unexcelled. Go leave your measure in time.

White Vests, are Drap'd Ete Suits, or Coats and Vests, now ready.

For competitors when the MODEL slashes right and left into Prices as they are now doing. We are the Leaders in this market of Low Prices, and although our business for the month of May has been very large, we propose to double our sales in June. We expect to sacrifice profits, but we must reduce our stock.

This week we make a cut in the prices of fine clothing that will carry consternation into the camps of our competitors. Elegant suits, made of Imported Cassimeres and Corkscrews, regular $25 and $30 suite, will now be sold at $18 and $20. We would call particular attention to one lot of fine imported brown Corkscrews, in sacks and four button cutaway suits, regular price, $22, now being sold by us at $15. The Man's Tweed Cassimere suits we are selling at $2.88 can not be matched under $6, and it would take $12 anywhere else to buy a suit as good as the all-wool ones we sell at $7.

Splendid suits for children at $1.58, $2 and $3. One hundred fine all-wool suits, worth $7 and $8, for $4 and $5. Sailor suits, 68c. Splendid suits for large boys, $2.65, and fine all-wool Cassimere suits at $6, $7 and $8.

Great bargains in Pants. Men's working pants, 75c, $1 and $1.25, and splendid all-wool pants, $2, $2.50 and $3, that are worth double.
